One Chance For Gutoski; Taylor Out

VERNON (Special) — Defending champion Tony Gutoski of Victoria was down to one chance and clubmate Gar Taylor was one of three rinks eliminated as the first three draws of the British Columbia curling championships were played at the Vernon Curling Club Friday.

Twelve rinks—10 zone champions and two which qualified through the B.C. Bonspiel—started a double-draw knockout yesterday morning to decide the rink which will represent the province in the Dominion curling championships in Quebec City next month.

When play was through last night, Taylor, Gil LeMoel of Trail and Fred Kapphahn of Prince George had been eliminated and only Frank Avery of Vancouver, Dick Topping of Oliver and Barry Naimark of Vancouver, who also qualified through the bonspiel, had two chances.

Avery, a Brier veteran who is supported by three brothers, Lyall, Keith and Ray Dagg, upset Gutoski in the quarter-finals of the "A" competition with a thrilling 9-8 win. Earlier in the day, Gutoski reached the quarter-finals in "B" competition with a 9-7 win over Kapphahn.

Taylor also ran afoul of Avery, losing in the afternoon draw, 12.9, in the "B" competition after he had advanced to the quarter-finals of "A" competition with a 13-4 rout of Ray Willems of Bralorne. Taylor then bowed out of the final when he was edged, 8-9, by Naimark.

Looked Like Winner

Gutoski looked like a winner all the way against Avery, taking a 6-4 lead on the eighth end by counting three and after Avery had tied it with two on the ninth, taking a big edge by scoring two on the 10th.

But the Vancouver veteran and his young brother combination fought back to tie it up with another pair on the 11th end.

Gutoski succeeded in keeping everything open on the last end until it got down to the skips' rocks. Avery planted his first rock on the centre line about six feet in front of the house and the win was set up when Gutoski missed running it with a boomer.

Avery drew behind his own rock, into the eight-foot ring and in front of the tee line. Gutoski tried to follow him in but was overweight and slipped by, and through the house.

Gutoski almost blew a lead against Kapphahn, leading 7-3 after seven ends then having to make both his shots on the 12th to avoid an extra end as Kapphahn pulled to 7-8 starting home. Gutoski faces a tough challenge this morning in "B" competition, being matched against Eric Bisgrove's young Kimberley rink.

Taylor should have won against Avery but the Vancouver skip scrambled through. Trailing, 6-7, on the ninth, Taylor missed a chance for three as he counted one to tie.

Four Straight Misses

Avery got two on the 10th end and the game broke open on the 11th when four straight misses gave Avery three more. With a five-rock lead, he had little trouble running the Victoria rink out of rocks.

Against Naimark, Taylor came from behind with one on the 10th end and two on the 11th to gain an 8-8 tie starting home. After Naimark's first rock had been played, the Vancouver rink was counting two. Taylor tried to draw in for shot but was about three inches overweight, cutting out only one rock, and Naimark didn't have to throw his last stone.

Naimark reached the quarter-finals of "A" event in the morning with a 10-9 win over Bisgrove. Topping won twice, both times in "A" event, besting Kapphahn by 11-10 and duplicating the score against LeMoel.

Net draw is at 9 this morning, when the four quarter-final matches in "B" event will be played. They pit Bill Fuller of Whitehorse against Avery, Bisgrove against Gutoski, Bill Taylor of Kitimat against Willems and Naimark against Topping.

At 2 p.m., it will be Topping against Naimark and Tom Needham of Revelstoke against Avery in the "A" event semi-finals. The semi-finals in "B" event are scheduled for 7 p.m. and the finals will be played on Sunday morning. If two different rinks come out, a best-of-three playoff will be staged tomorrow.

Yesterday's results:

"A" Event 16s—Topping 11, Kapphahn 10; Naimark 9, W. Taylor 5; G. Taylor 13, Willems 4; Naimark 10, Bisgrobe 9.

"A" Event quarter-finals—Topping 11, LeMoel 10; Naimark 9, G. Taylor 8; Needham 11 Fuller 3; Avery 9, Gutoski 8.

"B" Event 16s—Fuller 14, LeMoel 8; Avery 12, G. Taylor 9; Bisgrove 10, Needham 7, Gutoski 9, Kapphahn 7.

Eagle-Eyed Robin Roberts

They don't put much over on Robin Roberts when it comes to contract time. Here the big righthander, baseball's comeback man of the year in 1958, uses a magnifying glass to check the fine print of his contract with Philadelphia Phillies of the National League. Roberts, a 20-game winner for six straight seasons from 1950-55, won 19 games in 1956, then slipped to 10-22 in 1957. However last year he came back to win 17 for the Phils.—(AP Photofax.)

Cougars Surprise On Vancouver Ice

About the only predictable thing about Victoria's amazingly unpredictable Cougars this season is that they seem to play their best hockey in Vancouver Forum.

Playing away from home for the first time since Jan. 10, the Cougars did another about-face last night as they trimmed the Canucks, 4-1, at Vancouver and lost a shutout by less than three minutes.

It was their fourth win in five games at Vancouver Forum and the Cougars now have won five, and tied two of eight games against Art Chapman's Canucks this season.

Last night, it was lanky Al Nicholson and goalkeeper Marcel Pelletier who stood out in another of those complete form reversals which have kept Cougar fans guessing all season.

Saskatoon	45	19	23	3	140	151	41
Winnipeg	43	19	22	2	162	160	40

Last night's scores: VICTORIA 4 at Vancouver 1; Winnipeg 5 at Seattle 3; Calgary 3 at Edmonton 2 (overtime).

Next games: tonight, Winnipeg at Spokane; Vancouver at VICTORIA; Seattle at New Westminster; Calgary at Saskatoon.

ONE-MAN GANG

Nicholson, who seems to get himself tangled up somehow or other on almost every play but hustles his way out of it most of the time, was a one-man wrecking crew. The scrappy, hard-trying leftwinger scored three goals and set up the fourth.

Nicholson now has 23 goals, high on his club, and 36 assists to rank fifth in Western Hockey League scoring. Only Eddie Dorohoy, Guyle Fielder, Gerry Brisson and Lou Jankowski have more points.

Pelletier, who had a bad time of it here against Winnipeg Wednesday night, came up with one of his old-time displays in the nets to continue to make the Canucks wish they had either kept him or traded him out of the Western Division.

BIG FACTOR

He blocked 26 of 27 shots, many of them from close range, and his 14 saves in the first period were a big factor as the Cougars opened up by taking a 3-0 lead in the first 20 minutes. The Cougars clicked on four of 19 shots fired at rookie Bruce Gamble.

Pelletier has been most effective against his teammates of last season, holding them to 2.12 goals per game as against his season's record against all clubs of about 3.6 goals a game. In the last three games against Canucks, Pelletier has given up only two goals.

HERE TONIGHT

Canucks play a return engagement here tonight, and while they have had a bit more success against the Cougars in Victoria, they have yet to win on Memorial Arena ice. The Cougars won the first game here, 5-3; tied the others, 3-3 and 2-2.

Three new faces will be in the Vancouver line-up tonight. Ron Howell, Canada's outstanding home-brew football player as the star end of Hamilton Tiger-Cats, will be patrolling a wing. Les Lilley and Bob Robinson, former Canucks who were obtained this week in a trade with Saskatoon Quakers, will also be in Vancouver uniform. They played last night, Lilley picking up an assist on the goal which prevented Pelletier from getting his fourth shutout.

Victoria — Goal, Pelletier; defence, McLeod, Kaiser, Hay, Harris; forwards, Forhan, Lea, Anderson, Blackburn, Haworth, Scilsizzi, Macauley, Nicholson, Wilson.

Vancouver — Goal, Gamble; defence, Macnab, Douglas, Currie, Blaine; forwards, Robinson, Lilley, Hutchinson, Belisle, Hampson, Pearson, Howell, Peacosh, Cyr.

Howell's Here

Ronnie Howell, voted outstanding native-born player in Canadian football in 1958, has donned hockey gear this season with Vancouver Canucks who play Cougars tonight at Memorial Arena, starting time 8.30.

Ed Dorohoy Snaps Slump

Ed Dorohoy broke out of a three-game scoring slump just in time last night, ending Calgary Stampeders' losing streak at three games and keeping himself three points ahead of Seattle's Guyle Fielder in the two-man race for the Western Hockey League scoring championship.

Playing before a capacity crowd of 7,000 fans at Edmonton, Dorohoy set up the Stampeders' first two goals, then scored after three minutes of overtime to beat the Flyers, 3-2.

Meanwhile, at Seattle, Fielder picked up three assists in a losing cause as the Totems went down, 3-5, to the touring Winnipeg Warriors in an intersectional game.

PLAY-MAKER

Dorohoy now has 26 goals and 56 assists for 82 points while the play-making Fielder has 15 goals and 64 assists for 79 points.

Lou Jankowski, trigger-man on Dorohoy's line, shared honors with his centre by scoring the first two goals and making the play for the winner. Jankowski is now tied with Earl Johnson of Spokane for most goals, both having 31, and is fourth in the point race with 63. Winnipeg-rookie Gerry Brisson is third with 65 points.

Victory was a big one for the Stampeders, boosting them eight points in front of the Flyers when a loss would have carved the difference to four points. The Calgary club has three games in hand.

TWO IN HAND

Warriors, who appear to be heading for the third playoff spot in the Eastern Division, are now only one point behind Saskatoon and have two games in hand on the Quakers.

Third-period goals by Dick Lamoureux and Barry Ross were the difference as the two clubs headed into the final 20 minutes with three goals apiece. Defenceman Gordie Sinclair shot two of Totems' goals, set up the other to share offensive honors with Fielder.

Vikings, Totems Play School Cage Final

Victoria College Vikings were all out to break 100 in the first round of the inter-scholastic basketball tournament held at Victoria High School last night.

Seizing the ball at the beginning of the game, the Vikings outran and outshot the slower Royal Roads team throughout the entire game. Final score was 98-32.

Top scorer for the Vikings was tall Waldo Skillings with 21 points, trailed by Ken McCulloch with 19 points.

Although the Royal Roads squad held the height advantage, they couldn't quite get the co-ordination that would have pushed up the score.

Victoria High's Totems, host team to the inter-scholastic games, defeated their Oak Bay High rivals, 60-34, in a fast, hard-moving game.

Real hero of the game was Oak Bay's Wayne Farmer, who almost single-handedly scored the Oak Bay points. Without adequate time to rest, he played steadily and efficiently against the better teamwork of the Totems. Farmer sank nearly half the points for Oak Bay.

All eyes now are on tonight's play when the Victoria College Vikings meet the Victoria High Totems for the final decision. Also to be played tonight at Vic High is the game for third place, when Royal Roads will play Oak Bay High.

In exhibition play last night, Victoria High's junior rep team took on Lansdowne Junior High, and defeated them 23-15.

Vic High's Harris and Lansdowne's Worboys tied for the shooting honors with eight points apiece.

Baldwin in Trouble In Zone Playoffs

Edmonton's Matt Baldwin, seeking his fourth Canadian curling title and the honor of being the first skip to win the Brier Tankard three times in a row, is having his troubles getting out of his own zone.

Baldwin just barely made it into the finals of the Northern Alberta playdowns yesterday, then was beaten in the first game of the best-of-three series by Herb Olson, a young Edmonton shotmaker who has been knocking at the door for the past two or three years.

Olson bested Baldwin, 12-8, in the "A" section of the double-draw knockout to reach the final. Baldwin then just escaped being knocked out of "B" event by Dr. Jack Geddes, his vice-skip last year at Victoria, where Baldwin won his third Canadian title.

Baldwin had to go 13 ends to edge by Dr. Geddes, 9-8, and qualify to meet Olson in the best-of-three playoff.

Olson then promptly grabbed a one-game lead last night with an 8-6 victory. The second and, if necessary, third games will be played today.

Meanwhile, Art Simpson of Bassano, who has lost several times to Baldwin in the Alberta final, was beaten in the Southern Alberta final. He lost, 10-8, to George Menzies of Picture Butte in a 13-ender despite the fact Menzies had to play the game without vice-skip Bob Munro, who wrenched a knee in his first game yesterday.

Menzies now meets Jack Lebeau of Lethbridge in a best-of-three playoff.

In Eastern Canada, two rinks have already assured themselves of a place in the Canadian final. Art Forbes of Amherst will represent Nova Scotia and Bud Fisher of Corner Brook is Newfoundland's entry for the third straight year.

Nancy and Val Repeat in Final

Nancy Craig and Val Druce, who have stared across a table at each other in umpteen table tennis championships, go at it again tonight in the finals of the ladies' singles in the annual city tournament.

Mrs. Craig, who has lost count of the number of times she has taken the city title, reached the final at the Club Sirocco last night by beating Ingred Lang, 21-11, 21-6, 21-15. Mrs. Druce, a perennial runner up beat Val McPhail, 21-13, 21-13, 21-12.

Another pair of veterans will meet tonight in the finals of the men's singles. Art Ngai faces brother Eddie tonight when finals in all events get under way at 7.

Art Ngai downed Brian Hobbs, 22-20, 21-15, 21-9. Ed Ngai beat Ray Dawson, 21-14, 21-15, 16-21, 21-14.

Results of other semi-finals completed last night follow:

Junior singles—Brian Hobbs defeated Dennis Page, 21-17, 21-17, 21-19; Rick Gough defeated Ricky Pye, 21-17, 21-18, 21-12.

Juvenile singles—Ricky Pye defeated Ken Webb 21-12, 21-10, 21-17; Rick Gough, bye.

Men's doubles — Gough and Otto Osesge, bye; Ray Greenwood and Martin Woods defeated Jim Davidson and Jones, 21-15, 21-14, 21-10.

Senior singles—George Clark defeated Joe Lindal 21-14, 21-18, 18-21, 23-21; Jim Davidson defeated Bill Whittingham, 21-18, 21-14, 13-21, 20-22, 21-17.

Ladies' novice singles—Joy McGregor defeated Mary McKinnis, 21-14, 21-11, 21-12; June Cook defeated Marie Davis, 21-10, 21-18, 21-7.

Junior doubles—Brian and Grant Hobbs defeated Ken Leung and Ken Webb, 21-10, 21-16; Page and Bugge defeated Ricky Pye and Gough, 21-15, 16-21, 21-17.

U.S. PUCKSTERS WIN

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) —The United States easily defeated Switzerland 11-2 in an international amateur ice hockey game Friday night.

Speaking Briefly

Pay TV on West Coast

San Francisco and Los Angeles, major league baseball's youngest franchises, are being viewed as testing grounds for the most significant business move in the game since somebody passed the hat around an open field.

That is the televising of major league games on a pay-as-you-see basis. The subscription television plan is being prepared for introduction in the two Pacific Coast cities about July 1. Plans also call for pay television of college football games in the two cities.

The cost of viewing a single game has not been set but officials say it would be less than a fan pays at the gate.
